

Happy New Year!

There was a time when imagining 2019 conjured up scenes from “The Jetsons”. But here we are, with cars still wearing wheels and not a robot-maid in sight! However, we continue to walk forward as sons and daughters of the eternal (and oh-so-good) Father. What has He in store for you this year?

CONNECTION: You have never wanted closeness with anyone like the Father wants with you. That is to say: Take your deepest desire for love, friendship, and intimacy, and it will provide you only a sketch of how deeply the Lord cares about you. In 2019, He wants to see you come closer. He will faithfully open those channels, then He will await your response. Be ready for that privilege.

HEALING: If anyone has arrived in 2019 with every wound healed and every brokenness restored, then what a year it will be! For the rest of us, we acknowledge that God still has life-giving work to do. And we invite it. Let this be a year when we take every chance to open ourselves to Holy Spirit, to feed honesty and vulnerability within our relationships, and to invite the Lord to search our hearts lovingly but relentlessly, for anything that would hinder our experience of eternal life.

POWER: The Lord sees your life blessing others this year. He places upon us the presence and gifts of the Holy Spirit so that we can represent Him well, lovingly impacting those around us. This will range from the members of our household that we see every day to the stranger who might cross our path once in the year ahead. Place yourself regularly before the Lord, attentive and available, and you might be shocked by the ways He uses you this year.
